Red China Shells Nationalist-Held Quemoy Island

Small American Advisory Group Also On Isle

Chiang Says Day For Counter-Attack Is Drawing Near

TAIPEI, Formosa (U)—Red China today heavily shelled strategic, Nationalist-held Quemoy and its small American advisory group on the island 100 miles across the Formosa Strait from this Nationalist bastion.

The attack underscored Peiping's defiant rejection of a United Nations invitation to seek a cease-fire for Formosa.

The Reds also sent up an unusually strong force of Russian-built MIG-15 jet fighters in an effort to drive off Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's bombers, which today continued their heavy pounding off Communist invasion build-up points near Tachen.

Chiang, in a public statement, said Formosa has entered "a state of war."

He said the day for "launching a counter-attack on the China mainland is drawing near."

But intelligence reports coming out of Red China indicated a powerful buildup of Communist forces along the mainland fronting Formosa.

Nearly one million men were reported to have poured down from the north to reinforce a broad area extending from Shanghai to Canton. They also pointed out menacingly Peiping's boast that the Reds will invade and "liberate" the Nationalist off-shore islands and Formosa itself.

The Nationalists said Communist artillery, bolstered by the arrival at Amoy of two fresh regiments from Nanking, fired 12 rounds at Quemoy today but that Nationalist guns quickly "suppressed them."

The Nationalist air force said Communist MIG-15s took off from the mainland today one way of Nationalist bombers flew to Tachen, 20 miles north of the Tachens. The MIGs were unable to catch the bombers, which returned safely to their bases.

Col. Lu Ta, deputy nationalist military spokesman, reaffirmed today Taipei's determination to hold the Tachens against invasion, but Vice Adm. Alfred M. Pride, commander of the U. S. 7th Fleet, said his ships and planes were ready to assist in an evacuation at a moment's notice.

Pride said the fleet had sighted "all kinds of ships" in the Formosa strait but that American ships had not engaged any of them.

United Press Correspondent Al Kaff reported from one of the fleet's carriers today that the weather cleared and American planes resumed their patrolling of the uneasy Formosa waters.

Chiang made his "state of war" statement in a message to farmers on "Farmers Day," urging them to heighten their vigilance and double their production efforts.

Chinese sources said the statement indicated the firm stand Chiang is determined to make against any pressure to get him to agree to the idea of "two Chinas."

National Church Council Denounces Racial Prejudice

NEW YORK (U)—The National Council of Churches today denounced racial prejudice in any form as a sin against God.

The council sent a message to the 35,500,000 members of its 30 Protestant and Orthodox denominations for use in connection with Race Relations Sunday, Feb. 13.

"Any and all attitudes, mores, concepts, feelings, customs, practices, laws, personal and collective acts, that arbitrarily separate men are against the human family," the message said. "If they are against the family, they are against the will of the Father. If they are against God, then, whatever may be the bases for them—ignorance, fear, prejudice, or aught else—they are sin."

"Racial prejudice in any and all forms is contrary to the will and the design of God. Racial prejudice, with the long series of unhappy incidents that flow from it, is not merely bad, unfortunate, unrighteous—it is sin. Let this teaching be proclaimed. He who wrongs his brother, sins against God."

The council accompanied its message with a suggestion of positive actions to be taken by congregations and individuals to bring about an end of all forms of segregation and discrimination "so that brothers may be able to dwell in unity."

Foresters, 'Lucky Last Fall,' Prepare For the Worst in Spring Fire Season

SPRINGFIELD (U)—State foresters today took stock of Illinois forest fire losses and prepared for the worst.

The spring forest fire "season" is about to begin.

State Forester Eino Nuuttila added up his records for southern Illinois forest fires in 1954 and came up with 344 fires covering 38,976 acres. Fire losses were placed at $247,748.

The state was a bit lucky last fall, Nuuttila said, for fall and winter rains cut fires to a low level.

Only about nine serious fires occurred in the fall season. The rest were in the spring and tinder-dry summer.

"The heavy spring fire losses pushed the total up slightly above an average figure," Nuuttila said.

"If we hadn't gotten some fall rains in southern Illinois the total acreage would have been much higher."

Foresters in Agreement

Max H. Lane, staff forester in charge of the southern Illinois forestry headquarters at Benton, agreed with Nuuttila.

"The fall season was the lightest since 1950, although the spring losses pushed the total up so that the year as a whole wasn't too good," he said.

What's the outlook for the spring "season" this year?

"The worst season usually is in the spring, even with spring rains," Lane pointed out.

"In the woods down there it can rain one week and burn the next," he said.

The spring "season" starts when it's warm enough for farmers to start clearing land and burning brush. Of the 344 fires last year, 156 of them were started by persons burning brush, Lane explained.

Lane Urges Precautions

The worst of the spring season comes from mid-February to late March, with farmers the worst offenders. It's easy for a brush or field fire to get out of control when the necessary precautions aren't taken, Lane said.

The precautions are simple enough. Best rule for burning brush is to choose a day when humidity is high and the wind is low, and start the fire late in the afternoon rather than in the middle of the day," Lane said.

There are other causes of forest fires too, but in the spring they are few, compared to the debris burners. In the fall more fires are started by careless smokers, campers, hunters, motorists, and even sparks from locomotives.

Meanwhile Lane's fire warden and lookout tower crews are bracing themselves for the brush-burners.

Four Civic Groups Endorse Non-Political Park Board

Four Harrisburg civic organizations today have endorsed a proposal to place membership on the township park board on a non-political basis. Groups already indicating they will back such a plan are the Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions and Jaycees.

Other civic groups are expected to add their approval to such an endeavor within the next few days.

The proposition of divorcing park board membership and politics was initiated at Rotary club upon a proposal presented by Attorney Don Scott. Rotarians, showing interest and approval, voted to contact other civic organizations to ascertain their feeling on the proposition.

Township leaders of political organizations will also be contacted to see if they would favor and support such a move.

It is anticipated that a delegate from each organization favoring the change will meet within the next few days to work out details for its achievement.

The civic groups were of the same mind in that the move was not being made as a reflection on any park board member, past or present, but with a view to gaining non-partisan support for the township park with an eye to its future improvement through the cooperative efforts of park board members, political organizations, civic groups and citizens in general.

Mr. Rutledge's body will then be taken to the home of his brother, Charles, 1912 Jackson street, where the funeral will be held Monday at 1:30 p. m. Rev. C. C. Lowe, local Methodist minister will officiate, and burial will be in the Adams cemetery in Hardin county.

Senate Group to Quiz Matusow on False Testimony

Gov't Informer Claims He Was Lying in Red Trials

By United Press

The Senate Internal Security subcommittee said today it will quiz Harvey Matusow on his story that he gave false testimony in government Red trials and congressional Communist inquiries.

Chairman James O. Eastland (D-Miss.) said the subcommittee has issued a subpoena for Matusow to appear before it next Tuesday. He said the subpoena has not yet been served on Matusow, who was in New York.

Matusow, who claims he used to be a Communist but turned against the party to become a government informer, testified in four Internal Security subcommittee investigations in 1952-53. He has put the finger on upwards of 180 persons as Communists.

Now he says he was lying much of the time.

Other congressional news: Voice: Deputy Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers said Congress should hear the chief justice of the United States once a year on the needs of the judiciary. He said the federal courts are in bad financial shape and should have a spokesman before Congress. As things stand, Rogers said, the chief justice's "voice is muted."

The proposal drew mixed response.

Postal pay: The National Association of Letter Carriers opposed the administration bill to boost postal workers pay 5 per cent.

Warplanes: Navy Secretary Charles S. Thomas told a House Armed Services group that new aircraft are rolling off the production line and being delivered with a hitch. He blamed previous lags on transition from propeller-driven planes to jets.

AEC-TVA: The Senate Appropriations Committee created a new subcommittee to handle funds for the Atomic Energy Commission and the Tennessee Valley Authority. It will be headed by Sen. Lister Hill (D-Ala.), a strong foe of the AEC's Dixon-Yates power contract.

Trade: Rep. Henry Aldous Dixon (R-Utah) said foreign trade legislation should provide protection for the coal, zinc, and lead mining industries. He warned lest fear of communism and friendship for free nations "cause us to go so far toward free trade that we ruin our own economy."

Patronage: Sen. George D. Aiken (R-Vt.) gave his explanation of why Republicans are having patronage troubles. He said an inner circle of career employees from former Democratic administrations sets up job qualifications so only Democrats with prior experience in the federal service can get jobs. He said he doubted that this was "a party matter" but that "it works out that way."

Gov't to Appeal Du Pont Decision

WASHINGTON (U)—The government announced today it will appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court decision against it in the involved, six-year-old Du Pont anti-trust case.

Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell Jr. said that a notice of appeal has been filed in Chicago.

Last Dec. 3, Federal Judge Walter J. LaBuy dismissed the government's case against Du Pont in a ruling that climaxed one of the biggest anti-trust suits ever filed by the government.

The judge ruled in Chicago that the government had failed to prove that Du Pont acted in restraint of trade.

The government had sought to force E. I. Du Pont de Nemours & Co. and the Du Pont family to dispose of holdings in General Motors and U. S. Rubber on the grounds that they had a monopoly.

Rutledge Rites At Eldorado Monday

The body of William Oscar Rutledge who died Wednesday at his home in Detroit, Mich., will arrive on the train in Eldorado Saturday morning and be received by the Martin funeral service.

Mr. Rutledge's body will then be taken to the home of his brother, Charles, 1912 Jackson street, where the funeral will be held Monday at 1:30 p. m. Rev. C. C. Lowe, local Methodist minister will officiate, and burial will be in the Adams cemetery in Hardin county.

Chinese Communists Have Nearly Million Men in Shanghai to Canton Area

TAIPEI, Formosa (U)—The Chinese Communists have brought down almost 1-million men to defend the coastal area from Shanghai to Canton.

This information now is in the hands of American and Chinese Nationalist intelligence officers. They have reported that 150,000 crack Chinese Communist troops from Korea have been rushed into the coastal region in the vicinity of the disputed off-shore islands.

These veterans, according to the best information here, now are stationed in Fukien and Chekiang provinces.

The Chinese Communists are said to have at least 235 divisions. Their ground forces are reported to consist of 3½-million men, including 1-million security troops.

Winter Keeps Its Grip On Midwest, East

By United Press

Winter kept its numbing grip on the East today, freezing the Hudson River solid in a New York City suburb, and snow, sleet, and freezing rain swept unchecked up the nation's midsection.

Big ice floes clogged the Hudson at New York, delaying the French liner Liberté from docking for two hours and posing serious navigation problems to tugs and other smaller vessels.

The nation's biggest city braced itself for the second straight day of below zero weather in Manhattan's worst cold wave in seven years.

At suburban Tarrytown, N. Y., the three-mile-wide Hudson was frozen over solid. The ice was from four inches to two feet thick and it was the first time since 1918 that the river had frozen so far south.

Some Relief Due

Warmer weather was promised for the shivering East today, but a heavy snow and ice storm was rapidly gathering strength in the Midlands.

The giant storm system stretched from Texas to the Canadian border, beginning with freezing rain and sleet in the Lone Star State and developing into wind-whipped snow up to eight inches deep farther north.

Snow continued through the night in parts of Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, and South Dakota. Russell, Kan., had eight inches of snow, parts of Nebraska seven, and Pierre, S. D., six.

In southeast Nebraska, school officials sent children home early for fear they would be marooned by a blinding snow storm.

The weather bureau at Kansas City, Mo., issued a special bulletin warning motorists of dangerous driving conditions in Kansas, Oklahoma, Nebraska and Texas.

A snowfall up to two inches deep covered Chicago and made driving dangerous.

New Cold Front

The storm had already struck at the mountain states, piling up 19 inches at Lander, Wyo., and 13 inches at Eagle, Colo. There was six inches of snow on the streets at Denver, Colo.

Pelliss, Mich., became the nation's coldest when the mercury went 16 degrees below zero. It was still bitter cold in New England despite substantial temperature rises.

Cold, raw weather invaded the Southeast while nippy, but sunny, weather chilled Southern California. Below freezing temperatures were reported around Los Angeles and a low of 24 was predicted for Fontana, Calif.

Wife of Dr. Andy Hall Dies

MOUNT VERNON, Ill. (U)—Mrs. Andrew Hall, wife of Mount Vernon's beloved "Dr. Andy" Hall, died here Thursday afternoon after a long illness.

Funeral services for Mrs. Hall, who was 90, will be held Saturday. She had been an invalid for a number of years.

Besides her husband, who was honored by an open house and banquet for his 90th birthday last month, she is survived by three sons who are all doctors—Marshall of Mount Vernon, Andy Jr., of St. Louis and Wilfred, an Air Force brigadier general in Europe.

Frank P. Parker to Retire from High School Board

Frank P. Parker announced yesterday he is retiring from the Harrisburg Township high school board of education after serving for 15 years.

The terms of Mr. Parker and of Dr. Warren D. Tuttle expire in April and Mr. Parker said he definitely is not a candidate. Reports are that Dr. Tuttle, completing his first term, will run again and that Alfred Johnson, farmer living in the east part of the township, will be a candidate.

The election is April 9.

Lewis Protests Delay in Hearing on Coal Minimum Pay

WASHINGTON (U)—The Labor Department today considered a request by some 500 Virginia mine operators for a delay in hearings on a proposed federal minimum wage in the soft coal industry.

Motion for delay by the counsel for the operators brought sharp protests from United Mine Workers President John L. Lewis.

Wallace Cohen, counsel for the operators, asked that the hearings be postponed until April 1. Lewis objected to "the action of the gentleman representing an infinitesimal portion of the industry."

Lewis and two big coal producers have asked for a federal minimum wage in the soft coal industry equal to the basic union wage of $18.25 a day.

Cohen said the delay is necessary to permit him to gather more evidence to oppose the request.

Sen. Knowland Hits Proposals For Conference

WASHINGTON (U)—Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland said today that any new United Nations effort to get Communist China to discuss a Formosa cease fire would be a "surrender to Communist power."

The California Republican also denounced proposals that neutral nations such as India try to mediate the Formosan dispute or that a "Geneva-type" conference be called to try to work out peace between the Chinese Communists and Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist government on Formosa.

Knowland told newsmen "I can't conceive of the Nationalists being willing to risk the lives of their millions of people in the hands of Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru." He said such a proposal "hardly seems feasible."

Diplomatic officials said meanwhile that Red China, backed by India and Russia, is angling for the sort of conference Knowland opposes.

It would be a wide-open conference on all Far Eastern problems. The United States so far has received no formal invitation to such a meeting. But all indications are that this country would object to any parley going beyond U. N. efforts to obtain a cease-fire.

Diplomats reported that Russian officials also are talking up the possibilities of reaching agreement on Formosa "and other Far Eastern issues" in a private meeting on the Geneva pattern. It was recalled that Peiping and Moscow for many months have been harping on the idea of a big Far Eastern conference, always with the aim of easing tensions "created by the United States."

While the United States would be expected to object to any wide-open meeting, officials pointed out that President Eisenhower had left the door open to negotiations on the Formosa crisis outside the U. N.

Chicago Virtually Certain as Demo Convention Site

WASHINGTON (U)—It was virtually certain today that the Democrats will hold their 1956 convention in Chicago.

A special site selection committee recommended Chicago Thursday, but the party's full national committee must approve.

The full committee will vote on the recommendation by mail, but its approval was taken for granted at Democratic headquarters here.

Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler wants the convention to open Aug. 13, about a month later than in the past, to shorten the election campaign. But no final decision has been reached on the date.

Butler said Chicago was recommended as the convention site after representatives of the Windy City assured him they will agree to "certain requests of the site committee." Philadelphia was the only other city seriously in the running for the convention.

He did not elaborate, but it was reported reliably that the Democrats were trying to get Chicago to match Philadelphia's offer of a rent-free convention hall, $250,000 to help finance the convention and a $30,000 plus entertainment allowance.

GOP leaders also are considering Chicago for their convention along with Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

SIU Receives Research Grant

CARBONDALE, Ill. (U)—Southern Illinois university's microbiology research laboratory has received a $5,300 grant from the Illinois Division Inc. of the American Cancer Society for yeast research.

The laboratory already is doing work on yeast research for a number of government and private agencies including the American Cancer Society, the Atomic Energy Commission and the U. S. Public Health Service.

Initiative Is Shifted to London Meeting

Eden Warns Reds Against Attempt To Sieze Islands

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (U)—Hopes for a United Nations arranged cease-fire for Formosa dimmed almost to the vanishing point today.

But diplomats refused to give up hope that peace could be restored to the world's present most dangerous trouble spot.

The initiative shifted to London and to the meeting of the Commonwealth prime ministers.

The ministers were in a ticklish position. Under the leadership of Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill, most of them wished to avoid any move which would imply a split with the United States over its determination to defend Formosa and the nearby Pescadores.

But they also sought desperately a means to halt the conflict now before it could become larger.

"Uncertain and Undetermined"

Foreign Minister Anthony Eden told Commons that the ownership of Formosa and the Pescadores is "uncertain and undetermined."

But he also warned the Chinese Reds against attempting to seize any of the islands off the Red China mainland by force.

He warned that any such attempt would endanger the peace and automatically become "a matter of international concern."

India's Premier Jawaharlal Nehru was expected to take the initiative now in attempting to arrange a "Geneva type" conference outside the U. N.

Nehru, however, was expected to move slowly for fear of incurring another snub from Red China such as Thursday's abrupt refusal to participate in a Security Council debate on Formosa unless the United States first were declared an "aggressor" and Nationalist China were ousted from its U. N. seat.

Says Reds Flouted U. N.

The United States apparently was remaining aloof from the present London efforts. The State Department again accused the Red Chinese of "flouting" the U. N. and made it clear the U. S. will continue to work for peace through the U. N.

Most diplomats here thought that if any progress is to be made it must be done through secret diplomacy. They looked to Nehru or perhaps Canadian Premier Louis St. Laurent—the latter more acceptable to the United States—to take the lead.

A dispatch from New Delhi said official quarters there which usually are in touch with Peiping said India had hopes that other mediation would prevent a war but that India wanted to be sure both sides would be willing before India acted.

May Suggest Colombo Intervention

Nehru was in London where he could direct any communication to Peiping through the Communist China charge d'affaires there. A dispatch from Djakarta said the Indonesian premier might make approaches in London to let the five Colombo powers—India, Indonesia, Ceylon, Burma and Pakistan—tackle the question.

The prime ministers in London were reported to be considering two courses — secret negotiations such as those that solved the dispute between Italy and Yugoslavia over Trieste, or Nehru's idea for a Geneva-type conference.

Washington officials indicated they would be opposed to a Geneva-type meeting since it would go beyond the efforts by the United Nations. Red China attended the last Geneva conference as a self-proclaimed member of the "Big Five" and a truce was reached in the Indochina fighting.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

And Hezekiah went up unto the house of Jehovah * * * and Hezekiah prayed unto Jehovah.—Isaiah

Hezekiah was a good and great whelmed other kings.

An Awesome Burden

Editorial
By Bruce Blossat

President Eisenhower
sought and won from Congress support for use of our armed forces in the broad defense of Formosa. But he didn't mean to delegate, nor could he, the power to decide whether those forces shall be used in any other fashion in the Far East.

That must be his decision,
and his alone, as it was his to speak in the first place and warn the Communist world through resolutions endorsed by Congress.

This President, like any other,
may invite and listen to advice from many men. But in the end, they can only advise. They go away and leave him to himself. And he, plunged into a loneliness
none of us can likely imagine, must search the counsels of his own mind for the answers
the world awaits. It is an awesome burden, and no man on earth can share it with him.

Population Gains

Some of the American people
may think the population experts are talking through their hats when they predict a U. S. population of 220 millions by 1975. But the figures for 1954 certainly make the experts look good.

Last year the number of Americans increased by 2,530,000, the largest yearly gain in the country's entire history. For eight straight years, we have added more than 2,500,000 people annually to the population.

How do these astonishing figures
come about?

In the first place, in 1954 we had around 4,060,000 births, the most in any year on record. Secondly, tentative indications are that the death rate dropped to an all-time low of 9.2 per 1000 population.

THE great boom in births is by now an old story. Not so well appreciated is this continuing improvement in the national health,
as reflected by declining death rates. The death rate has now been below 10 per 1000 for seven successive years, an especially notable thing in the light of the steady rise in the proportion of older folk
in the American population.

In addition to these factors, of course, we get each year a small increment from immigration. Last year it came to some 200,000.

But obviously, in projecting population prospects for the next two decades and beyond, the experts are deeply impressed by the continuing remarkable trends in birth and death rates.

TRENDS are not sure-fire. They can be radically altered by unforeseen factors. Another great war,
a real depression, such cataclysmic
events could upset all predictions.
World War II and its aftermath
certainly threw out of the window
the experts' forecasts made during the 1930's.

As a sidelight on the gains that have brought our present population total to approximately 164 million, it is interesting to note that the Pacific Coast states still are climbing at a rate higher than the national average, though not as fast as during the 1940's. Florida is still pushing upward with gains of around 6 per cent a year, three times the U. S. average. Nevada and Arizona have even higher rates of increase, but they start from a low total population base.

Let's hope that our planners,
from the White House down to dusty little township offices, are reading these figures and acting upon them. If they do not, the United States by 1975 will be the most tangled civilization on the face of the globe.

Time and Length
The year is a measure of time;
the light year is a measure of length. Light travels about 186, 000 miles per second; in a year it will go about 5,880,000,000,000
miles, and that is one light year.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: Ambassador Dunn Aims Astonishing Views On Spain: Predicts Continuation Of Spanish Dictatorship: Expresses Enthusi-
sm Over Training Of Spanish
Women.

WASHINGTON. — Ambassador
James C. Dunn, long-time envoy to Spain, has given some amazing secret testimony to a congressional committee regarding the chief Fascist nation in the world. His praise of dictator Franco dripped almost like syrup as he told the congressional representatives of the country with the most representative government in the world
the advantages of fascism.

So far, his remarks have not been made public.

Dunn, who was transferred to Brazil only this month, is a career diplomat and croquet partner of Cordell Hull. Dunn was a vigorous advocate of recognition of dictator Franco and also urged an arms embargo against the Spanish Loyalist government to help Franco.

His testimony was given to investigating congressmen when they visited Spain in September. Dunn reported that dictator Franco was sitting solid with the Spanish people except for a certain amount of labor opposition; that relations between the United States and Spain were rosy, and he confidently predicted Franco would be able to carry on for 10 years while his dictatorship would continue for 25 years. Dunn even praised Franco's regimentation of women.

Congresswoman Katharine St.
George of New York, the Republican who defeated isolationist Congressman Ham Fish, was skeptical.

FRANCO'S HEALTH
"Suppose in the normal course of events Franco should get out of the picture," she asked. "Who would take over?"

"We have given a great deal of thought to that," Ambassador Dunn replied. "General Franco is about 61 years old and in very good health. I think he is good for another 10 years, or so because he takes very good care of himself. If anything should happen to him, I am convinced that there is someone here in Spain in the higher levels of the government who will be selected to carry on in his place.

Five U. I. Students Seek Success as Song-Dance Men

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. — Five
hungry and near-broke students from the University of Illinois today looked with undimmed hope toward success in the big time as song-and-dance men.

The five would-be entertainers,
who call themselves the Collegiates, appeared on a local TV show Thursday night to open their quest for names in light.

But the show gave them little more than a chance to explain their mission in driving here from Champaign, Ill.

They did their soft shoe routine,
sang several songs and added nothing to their cash reserve.

"We have only $1.73 left," said
Les Ottinger, 19, after the TV appearance.

Ottinger and Cliff Zabka, 26, are the quintet's shoofly specialists.
Their colleagues are pianist Joe Conover, 19; Day Brewer, 20, a tap dancer; and Manager Irv Stansell, 21.

They arrived in a sharp-looking convertible, waving Illinois pennants,
and began looking around for distant relatives and fraternity brothers to provide food and shelter.

SIDE GLANCES

By Galbraith

"I don't know how you kids expect to get decent grades, doing your homework in front of the TV—I can't even concentrate on the comics!"

He has set up an arrangement already to name the successor . . .
"We have to face the fact," Dunn concluded, "that we will have this sort of regime here — a nonrepresentative regime; but this type, which is fairly mild—for at least 10 years and possibly 25 before you would begin to have a return to a representative government."

"That is one of the troubles
with these dictatorships," commented Congressman St. George.
"You cannot tell when the one man may get out of the picture."

"They have to watch that very carefully, because if there's any interim this whole thing might flare up again," said Dunn.

"Are there any personal differences between our administrators and the Spanish government?"
asked Congressman Charles Brownson, Republican of Indiana.
"No," replied Dunn. "It's just too good to be true. To me it is a new sensation, because I have been in other countries where there have been such arguments, but not here."

The ambassador at this point obviously omitted the manner in which Franco has hiked certain U.
S. military costs at the last moment and the unpleasant wrangle that the Air Force has had over the right of Protestant American G. I.'s to marry Spanish girls unless they join the Catholic church
or the church gives approval.

REGIMENTATION OF WOMEN

Ambassador Dunn was also enthusiastic over the Communistlike regimentation of Spanish women.
"The women's organization is very interesting," he explained,
"because they have the women all organized, and every young girl from about 17 to 18 or 19 has to serve at least six months in some social service—not military, but some social service—either helping in a hospital or producing something. They have a very fine school in which they train the leaders of those girls."

The American ambassador's conclusion was uncomfortably like the apologies Nazi leaders made for the Hitler youth movement.

"I have seen it in operation,"
he said, "and it certainly does not do them any harm. It does them probably a lot of good. They learn a certain amount of discipline and order, and in this whole movement they are always inculcating the doctrine of patriotism."

"It isn't a bad idea," he concluded, "unmindful of how closely the fascist system resembled the same training methods we are operating in Russia."

FRANCO'S STRENGTH

Describing the reasons for Franco's support, the American ambassador testified:

"The reason this present form of government and General Franco

are carrying on and being supported and maintaining hold on the people here is because, in the first place, he has the support of the Army . . . who are extremely loyal to him. He also has the respect of the Catholic church, which is very strong because the country is practically 100 per cent Catholic."

"The third element is this political group which is called the National Movement, which is deliberately whipping up a certain amount of patriotic sentiment."

"Are there any economic controls?" asked Congressman George Meader, Republican of Michigan.

"Yes, every kind of control," replied the ambassador. "You will find some new ones you could not think up even."

Dunn then told how it was necessary to have a license to buy almost anything, even a typewriter.

Note—A whole section of Dunn's testimony was arbitrarily deleted
from the hearing record by Congressman Brownson. It was a blistering indictment of the effect of McCarthyism on the working efficiency of the foreign service. Apparently Brownson thought Dunn's words would be too damaging to Senator McCarthy and to John Foster Dulles for not standing up to McCarthy. So Brownson took it upon himself to pretend the remarks were never made.

LAZY KIDNEYS could be the cause of your TIREDNESS

Do you envy the people who race
through their work
and play, and never seem to tire? Their secret is the ability to rest and get "re-
charged" with sound
sleep . . . instead of getting up several times every night. Their kidneys eliminate irritating acid wastes.

● If lazy, slowed-down kidneys are causing your tiredness, loss of energy, backache
or body pains, let DeWitt's Pills help your system remove

Skeletons Saved

St. Catherine's monastery, at the foot of Biblical Mount Sinai in southeastern Egypt, has one of the world's strangest "burial grounds."
Skeletons of all monks dying within the monastery are preserved in a small building, with skulls being stacked in one heap and body bones
in another.

Here's a trick to make rolling out pie crusts easier. Place the ball of dough between two squares of waxed paper. The rolling pin won't stick to the dough and the paper
can be used to transfer the pastry to the tin. Pastry usually is easier to handle when it's placed in the refrigerator for about 30 minutes before rolling.

Most people still don't believe it. But it is true.

And when you look into the facts, you'll find these two solid truths:

Buick is one of the "Big Three" in sales volume—and hotter this year than ever before. And Buick is one of the "Big Three" when it comes to prices which make such popularity possible. The price we show here proves it.

So why not get what a Buick has to offer, if you are in the market for a new car?

You find that the dollars you pay for Buick buy you a lot more automobile—and the sheer satisfaction that comes with bossing a brawny traveler of this caliber.

You find it in the record-high V8 power that gives life to this spirited performer. You find it in the soft and level and cruiser-steady ride that comes of all-coil springing and torque-tube stability. You find it in the extra roominess, the extra frame strength, the extra tread width, the extra silencing—all part and parcel of every Buick.

We could tell you about the little things, too. Things usually charged for as "extras" in other cars, but yours as standard equipment at no extra cost in every Buick. Things like direction signals, oil-bath air cleaner, full-flow oil filter, automatic lighting in glove and trunk compartments—and so on.

But—you get the idea. This is a buy, this '55 Buick—
a great buy—and a thriller from the instant you press its gas pedal. Come in this week and check things for yourself, won't you?

From church pews to fish-scale, tropical or political—you can find a market in The Daily Register classified columns. Candidates in the race to win, know that Daily Register classifieds are a good place to call attention nightly to their candidacy.

Tips on Traffic Safety

By CHARLES F. CARPENTIER
Secretary of State

You have a horn on your car, and it is there for a definite purpose—primarily to enable you to warn pedestrians and other motorists of your presence so they won't unknowingly make some move which could cause an accident.

But don't be a "honker." The fact that you have a horn on your car does not automatically give you the right to blast it every time some traffic situation irritates you. A horn is required equipment on your car, but the same section of the law which says you must have a horn (Section 115, a Uniform Act Regulating Traffic) also contains this statement: "The driver of a motor vehicle shall when reasonably necessary to insure safe operation give audible warning with his horn but shall not otherwise use such horn when upon a highway."

Scaring people by sudden, loud blasts on your horn may easily cause accidents instead of preventing them. A startled person may make the very move you are trying to warn him against. A stubborn person becomes only more stubborn when prodded by a blasting horn. Sound your horn when necessary, but only when necessary. It is only a warning device, not a demand for the right-of-way, and it was certainly never intended as a substitute for a doorbell.

A copy of the completely new "Rules of the Road" booklet will be sent to you free upon request. Write to CHARLES F. CARPENTIER, Secretary of State, Springfield, Illinois.

Violin-Piano Duo Provides Special Treat in Concert Presentation Here

By JOHN SCHORK

Members of the Harrisburg Community Concert association enjoyed a very special treat last evening in the auditorium of the First Baptist church. The violin and piano team of De la Fuente and Stessin presented one of the most delightful concerts to be heard here in the seven years that the local group has been affiliated with Columbia concerts. Fine music, tastefully and artistically presented should be reward enough for any listener. However, last night's performance was enhanced by the evident enjoyment of the performers themselves. Their music came alive.

Mr. De la Fuente performed wizardry with his bow. His technique is superb; but, best of all, his playing is always musical. One is aware of an urgency to communicate with the audience. Therein lies the mark of an artist. This was no pedantic performance but one of warmth and sensitivity.

The piano in the auditorium has never sounded better than it did on this occasion. Mr. Stessin was able to produce an amazingly fine tone from the instrument. His playing is facile and clean. Only rarely did the pedal obscure the clear delineation of his phrasing.

The artistry of these two fine musicians was best expressed in the Brahms Sonata in D minor, Op. 108, and the Saint-Saens Sonata in D Minor, Op. 75. In both instances the ensemble was most gratifying. The latter work sounded almost orchestral in its brilliance.

Let one indulge in superlatives, shall we say again that this was a most enjoyable musical experience.

I don't know that I've ever seen any notice given to a very important

Engineer Injured When Trains Collide

Student Swims to Shore When Ice Floe Breaks Loose

GRAND HAVEN, Mich. — Henry Miller, 24, a student at the University of Illinois, swam to safety in Lake Michigan's icy waters Thursday after an ice floe from which he was taking pictures of ice formations broke loose.

Miller, who was visiting a friend here, took off his shoes and parka and jumped into the water from the drifting floe north of Municipal Pier. He swam to solid ice and then walked to shore in his stocking feet.

Army Doctor Termed 'Red' Receives Discharge

WALTHAM, Mass. — An Army doctor, once termed a "Fifth Amendment Communist" by Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.), was discharged today "under honorable conditions."

The doctor, Pfc. Marvin F. Belsky, was attached to Murphy Army hospital here.

McCarthy had demanded that the 26-year-old physician be discharged because he refused to say last March whether he was a Communist.

An Army spokesman, in announcing Belsky's discharge, said the Army "made exhaustive investigations of Belsky's service."

"No information or evidence has been developed with reference to any alleged subversive conduct on the part of Belsky to warrant a separation under other than honorable conditions," he said.

Map New Island Identification for Crab Orchard Rescues

CREAL SPRINGS, Ill. (AP)—Maps of Crab Orchard Lake containing a new island identification code to speed rescue operations were given to five area fire departments Thursday night.

Islands in the 7,500-acre lake between Marion and Carbondale are numbered on the maps given to fire departments of Carbondale, Carterville, Herrin, Marion and West Frankfort at a meeting of the Coal Belt Firemen's Assn. here.

The islands formerly were known only by informal names and that caused some confusion in past rescue operations.

Appointed to a committee to guide rescue operations at the lake were fireman Bob Burke, West Frankfort, chairman; Fire Chief Carl Meyers, Herrin; Fire Chief Monk Cranshaw, Carbondale; Fire Chief Zora Buckner, Marion, and William County Deputy Sheriff Ora Colvard, Herrin.

Legion Auxiliary To Begin Annual Subscription Drive

Mrs. Paul Golish, president of the American Legion Auxiliary of George Hart Post No. 167, announces that the annual subscription campaign will begin Monday, Feb. 7.

The funds derived this year, Mrs. Golish pointed out, will be used for the purchase of portable adjustable sick room equipment which will be housed in Harrisburg so as to most conveniently serve the residents of the various communities and be readily available for temporary use to all residents of Saline county without charge except for transportation.

Only accredited representatives of the publishers, each bearing letters of authorization and identification will call on residents to explain the plan in full detail. These letters will bear the signatures of officers and members of the American Legion Auxiliary. All representatives working on the campaign will be registered at the county sheriff's office.

Mrs. Golish added that the plan will be considered as a community service project and not as a request for donations. Donations will not be accepted by either the representatives working on the campaign or the American Legion Auxiliary.

This equipment will render valuable and timely service to the residents of this community. Cooperation by all will be appreciated.

Two Brothers Charged with Beating Girl, 5

PONTIAC, Ill. (AP)—Two brothers, aged 12 to 13, have been charged with beating a 5-year-old girl so severely that she is partially blind, deaf and paralyzed.

The boys told authorities they struck the girl because she refused to take a nap.

The girl was identified as Nancy Lee Robotham, now 6, daughter of Charles Robotham of Aurora. She was left at the home of the boys' parents, who farmed near here. The parents went away and left the little girl in care of the boys. Authorities said when the girl was brought to St. James Hospital here last June 10 it was reported she had fallen from a swing.

Robotham, however, came here this week and filed charges against the boys. They pleaded innocent to charges of aggravated assault and battery and were released to the custody of their parents on $300 bond each. A psychiatric examination will be given them next month at Bloomington.

The girl's mother, now Mrs. Phyllis Gaines of Shumway, Ill., said doctors have held slight hope for Nancy's recovery.

While his eyes clung to her, long-held hungers came back to him. She had put her claws in him once, and the marks were still tender.

"It was a mistake, whatever there might have been between Dreyfus and me," she murmured. "He was a good husband in his way. And I lived up to my bargain. I don't think he ever knew how it turned out with me. I believe you knew before I went through with it. In a way, you can see the future and know what's to be even before it happens. I want no more hardrock mining, and no more placers on the Has-sayampa!"

"Just common sense. You're the kind of woman who sooner or later dies in a camp without excitement."

"Loneliness," she murmured caustically. "I told you once it could bend you to your knees. Now I know its fierce power. But I think you'll go your own way until the end. I don't believe you need anyone—you're stone."

She paused a moment, watching him closely. "He was murdered, Captain."

"Redmen don't empty pockets and let a man be buried with his hair. I'm not sure who's to blame. Calhoon was good to us before Dreyfus was killed; he was good to me afterward. But I have the idea he was good to us because of the gold."

He asked sharply, "You think Calhoon killed him?"

"For the mine. When he found it was worthless he started talking about selling out. He found a man willing to buy it." Now her cheeks were colorless, her mouth drawn thin. She ran her hand beneath the folds of her blanket, bringing out Dreyfus's pistol. She said soberly, "You see how it is, Captain?"

All she waited for was proof; all she needed was Calhoon's first bad move. Then Calhoon's life wasn't worth a cough in the wind. She would use the gun on him as readily as she would kill a snake.

He made no attempt to disarm her. Instead he turned and stalked toward the door. "We all conduct our lives according to our own lights," he said slowly. "Queenie, Calhoon salted that mine. Both of you probably did it together. If I get you to Yuma with that satchel you'd better take the gold and light out. Go somewhere so far that nobody knows you. Don't come back!"

"I think that's what I mean," she told him. As he stamped from the stateroom he carried the impression her words had been blurred by a sob.

The General Heath carried her to the massive hog-framing. Crotch checked aft over his pair of loaded ore barges on the ends of their lines. Steamboat men regularly tied fast to the bank as soon as the light was too poor to judge the swirls on the river's surface. These marked the danger spots. Woe to the captain who missed them.

The barges brought back John Slade's warning about their bullion. For a moment Crotch considered the possibility of cutting loose the barges. Slade had passed on the responsibility pretty slick. Crotch had no doubt at all that Calhoon was on his boat with evil design. The offer he had delivered for Jamison, undoubtedly brought to La Paz last night, had been Navigation's final attempt to retire Crotch short of murder. In turning that down he was inviting Navigation to do its worst. In the final analysis he held one card that could yet lick Jamison. During drought seasons there wasn't enough water to float Navigation's larger boats. If he held out, if Jamison didn't sink him, he meant yet to win.

He surprised Calhoon stepping out of the stuffy room in which a card game had been played. Obviously Calhoon had quit a winner for he was folding banknotes into his pocket. Federal greenbacks of a considerable denomination, and a few Confederate bills bearing an engraving of Jeff Davis. "For an old boiling teakettle we're making good time, Crotch. You should be at Pilot's Slough by dark."

"Why Pilot's Slough?"

But Calhoon merely shrugged. "Good spot to tie fast for the night. We've been there many times." He smiled and moved on toward Queenie's room.

It was customary, of course, to tie fast at the Slough because of the woodyard run by a group of Coconos. But Crotch had wood enough in his bunkers to see him below this point. If he ran short he would put his crewmen ashore in the cottonwoods with axes. He kept wondering if there was a special significance to Pilot's Slough tonight.

He entered the pilothouse warmed by his anger, ordering Goss below.

"You can take the wheel from me about 10."

Goss struck back with a withering look. "You mean to run this graveyard by night?"

"We're going to make a try, Ben. Anybody comes after us is buying a fight. You're to get out the extra guns and hand them around. See that the crew knows what to expect."

"We're likely all of us to get some exercise hauling her off sandbars." Goss chuckled over the dismal thought and stepped onto the bridge deck.

Then Crotch yelled after him. "Keep your eye on Calhoon. In case he starts anything shove your revolver in his belly!"

Illinois to Play Northwestern In Big 10 Tilt

CHICAGO (AP) — Big Ten basketball competition comes back to an "all out" stage Saturday with four league games on the program and only the temporary league leader, Minnesota, without a game.

Conference matches will be Northwestern at Illinois, Indiana at Ohio State and Michigan State at Wisconsin at night after Purdue plays at Iowa in the afternoon television game. Michigan entertains Los Angeles State in a non-conference match.

Interest in the games will center on the Iowa and Illinois engagements. The Hawkeyes could move into a tie with Minnesota for first place by beating the Boiler-makers, while Illinois could climb within a half game of the Gophers by beating Northwestern.

Only Iowa, Illinois and Minnesota have been beaten twice in league play. Five teams have lost three times while Ohio State has lost four and Purdue five.

The Purdue-Iowa battle, with the Hawkeyes favored, could result in an upset for only last week Minnesota, victors over the Boiler-makers by 102-88 in their first meeting, had to go six overtimes before earning a 59-56 decision over Purdue, in last place.

This week's battle will be the only meeting between Iowa and Purdue this season.

Illinois was favored over Northwestern, but there too an upset could be expected for the Wildcats boast the best shooting percentage in the league on field goals and rank as the outstanding offensive club in the circuit.

Stonefort Eliminated From Tournament

Stonefort was eliminated from championship consideration in the Creal Springs grade school basketball tournament by losing to Energy Thursday night, 57-42.

Mitchell, husky Stonefort center, was whistled from the game via the foul route in the late stages of the game to sink any chances Stonefort had of rallying for a victory.

Pittsburg won from Chittiville in the other semifinal game played last night. This evening Stonefort and Chittiville will meet for third place

Cumberland Wins 20th Straight

CASEY, Ill. (AP) — Unbeaten Cumberland chalked up its 20th straight win Thursday night by whipping Oblong 76-64 in the quarterfinals of the Eastern Illinois League prep basketball tourney.

Robinson sneaked by Casey 56-54 in the other quarterfinal match. Paris tackles Charleston and Cumberland takes on Robinson in the semifinals tonight.

Lloyd Eggers, a standout on the Cumberland quintet that played in the state finals last spring, led the attack against Oblong with 25 points.

Robinson was forced to go two overtimes to beat Casey. A field goal by Rob Rich in the "sudden death" second extra period told the tale.

Kentucky Rebounds with Impressive 87-63 Victory Over Florida; Utes Win

By United Press

Kentucky's nation-leading basketball team served sharp notice today that it has no intention of collapsing despite its troubles with upsets and a resigning player.

Rebounding from its surprise defeat by Georgia Tech and hardly missing star player Linville Puckett at all, the Wildcats handled dangerous Florida with impressive ease, 87-63, at Lexington, Ky., Thursday night to stay in the thick of the fight for the Southeastern Conference championship.

Leading from the opening minutes as 6-foot-7 Phil Grawemeyer led the assault with 20 points, Kentucky little resembled the tense, uncertain club that was upset by Georgia Tech, 65-59, only last Monday for the second time this season.

And the absence of Puckett, who quit the team Wednesday after Coach Adolph Rupp issued a blast about breaking training, obviously made little difference.

Six-five Bob Emerick, who hails from Ashland, Ky., provided the chief bright spot for Florida with 18 points.

The victory gave Kentucky a 13-2 overall record and a 5-2 conference record. Alabama leads the loop with a 4-1 mark.

Utes, ranked 16th

Utah, ranked third in the nation behind Kentucky and San Francisco, easily extended its season record to 16 wins against only two defeats by trouncing Los Angeles State for the second straight night, 6-8.

George Washington, defending champion of the Southern Conference, put the brakes on Furman, the nation's highest scoring team, 76-71, to push its third-place league record to 4-1.

In other leading games Thursday night: Cincinnati, ranked 20th nationally, marked up its seventh straight victory by beating Seton Hall, 88-78, at Madison Square Garden, coming from 11 points behind to win as Jack Twyman led the way with 25 points; Manhattan trounced St. John's, N. Y., 88-71, as Ed and Joe O'Connor, no relation, scored 20 points each; Drake downed Detroit, 93-86, although Guy Sparrow of Detroit set a new record for the Drake Field House with 33 points; South Carolina, after taking an astounding 40-9 lead in the first 12 minutes of play, set a new home court scoring record in a 97-65 victory over The Citadel; John Carroll upset St. Francis, Pa., 79-70; Loyola, La., downed Xavier, Ohio, 75-71; and Texas Tech defeated Texas, 71-74.

And it was a happy, happy night for Concordia College of Minnesota, which ended a 29-game losing streak by beating Moorehead Teachers, 86-62.

Crab Orchard Group Asks Change In Hunting Rules

HERRIN, Ill. (AP) — The Crab Orchard Sportsmen's Assn. Thursday night adopted a resolution calling for a change in migratory waterfowl hunting regulations for southern Illinois.

The resolution asks that the area roughly south of U. S. 50 be included in the Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas season, which is later than the present Illinois season.

The resolution will be sent to the secretary of the interior, Gov. William Stratton and U. S. senators and congressmen from Illinois.

The association also will send Circuit Judge Clarence E. Wright, Carbondale, and one other delegate still to be named to the annual Mississippi Flyway Conference in St. Louis in April. It is expected a large group of southern Illinois sportsmen will accompany the delegates to the meeting where they will present their case before federal and state conservation and wildlife officials.

Discussion during the meeting Thursday night brought out that part or all of 23 southern Illinois counties are farther south than Louisville, Ky. M. W. Finney, Herrin, a past president of the association, said the present Illinois waterfowl hunting season opens about three weeks too early for southern Illinois hunters.

He said flights of ducks and geese do not reach the southern end of the state in sufficient numbers for good shooting until three weeks after the season opens. He said southern Illinois hunters need all of December for waterfowl shooting.

Gavilan Meets Durando Tonight

NEW YORK (AP) — Kid Gavilan, the Cuban song-and-samba mauler, says his comeback fight with Ernie Durando tonight will be far different from the recent return performance by that other ditty-and-dance guy, Sugar Ray Robinson.

"I no look like Robinson tonight," declared the ex-welterweight champion. "I be 20 times faster than I was in October."

In the Keed's last fight on Oct. 20, he lost the 147-pound title to Johnny Saxton at Philadelphia. Although the decision was very questionable, Gavilan was far off form that night.

Some observers suspected he had lost his condition permanently while touring Cuba with his own dance troupe last year.

Rarely do veterans of the ring wars return to form after song-and-dance tours. Gavilan is 29, and he has 117 professional fights under his belt.

The once-great Cuban never actually retired as did Sugar Ray Robinson, former welterweight and middleweight ruler. Sugar Ray came out of retirement, after two and a half years of hooding and crooning, on Jan. 19 and suffered a surprise trouncing by Ralph (Tiger) Jones. The Tiger was a 5-1 underdog.

For tonight's nationally televised and broadcast 10-round, middle-weight Durando of Bayonne, N. J., is a 4-1 underdog. The odds-makers believe Gavilan can salvage enough of his old-time speed and savvy to lick the Bayonne Belter, who is the hardest puncher in the 160-pound division but probably its least-polished boxer.

Life in America Full of Surprises For Yank Returned from Prison Camps

DETROIT — John Noble, who spent nearly a third of his 31 years in Russian prison camps, said today that life has been one surprise after another since he returned to America.

The modern Rip Van Winkle said most of the new things he's encountered have been "wonderful," but he said others were puzzling and some of them downright distasteful.

Noble had a lot of nice things to say about American automobiles, airplanes, expressways and television. Not so with popular music and women's short haircuts.

"Popular music is like Russian music," he said. "When you first hear it you don't think you can stand it. But after you listen to it long enough you reach the point where you no longer hear it."

Noble said some women "look as if their hair had been gnawed off by a rat."

"When I left this country in 1933 women really looked like women because they wore their hair at shoulder length," he said.

Noble, who lived in Germany for seven years before the Soviets imprisoned him, said he was "very much impressed" by the number of Americans who own and drive automobiles. In Russia, he said, only the rich and the politically powerful have cars.

The only thing wrong with the new Detroit models, according to Noble, is that they all look the same.

Noble said the first time he realized how out of touch he had been with the world during his 10 years of captivity was when he boarded the liner which carried him from England to the United States. Except for some Soviet jets flying thousands of feet up, he said the plane was the first "really modern" one he ever saw.

The former Communist prisoner's first taste of television came early last month when he appeared on telecasts originating in New York and Detroit.

"I appeared on television before I ever saw it," he said.

To Appeal Court Ruling in Lattimore Case

WASHINGTON — U. S. Atty. Gen. A. J. B. Lattimore today announced he will appeal the dismissal of two key perjury charges against Owen Lattimore.

At the same time, Federal Judge Bolitha J. Laws indefinitely postponed the perjury trial, scheduled to start Feb. 14, on five minor perjury counts.

A new trial date for the Far Eastern expert will be set after the U. S. Court of Appeals rules on the government's appeal.

Rover said the government wanted to try the entire case at the same time.

Federal Judge Luther W. Youngdahl dismissed on Jan. 18 the two key charges that Lattimore lied when he denied following the Communist line and promoted Communist interests.

Youngdahl said the charges were "formless and obscure" and that for Lattimore to go on trial on such charges would "be unprecedented and would make a sham of the 6th Amendment and the federal rule requiring specificity of charges."

Youngdahl's ruling was made on the second of two indictments returned against Lattimore.

Last May, Youngdahl dismissed the key count in the first indictment which charged that Lattimore was a "sympathizer" with Communist interests. The U. S. Court of Appeals later upheld his action.

After the May decision, Rover charged that Youngdahl was biased in favor of the former State Department consultant and asked the judge to disqualify himself from the trial. Youngdahl refused and labeled Rover's action "scandalous."

Herriot Appeals for French Harmony

PARIS — Edouard Herriot, "grand old man" of French politics, made a dramatic last-minute appeal for harmony today in an effort to prevent the overthrow of Premier Pierre Mendes-France.

Political observers gave Mendes-France little better than a 50-50 chance of averting defeat for his government in a confidence test that may affect the future of the Western alliance. The vote was scheduled for some time after 5 p. m. CST.

The 82-year-old Herriot appealed to his Radical Socialist Party to support Mendes-France against his rival for leadership in the party, former Premier Rene Mayer. In the National Assembly showdown on German rearmament last December Herriot opposed Mendes-France.

Stevenson Steals The Show from Margaret Truman

WASHINGTON — Adlai Stevenson was greeted like a crooner when he made a surprise appearance Thursday at an affair for a concert singer.

Stevenson dropped in unannounced at a reception being given for Margaret Truman. The resulting commotion made the women's National Democratic Club sound more like a Frank Sinatra fan club.

The ladies abandoned Miss Truman and their coffee cups and nearly mobbed Stevenson.

The titular head of the Democratic party was obviously embarrassed.

He finally reached the smiling Miss Truman, an ardent Stevenson fan who didn't mind at all that he stole the show.

"I've got to move along," he said. "I'm holding up the reception line."

"I've got news for you," Margaret replied. "You are the line."
